Mandatory Condition # 2: The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.Supporting Evidence: Freddie Franklin was arrested in Spokane County on September 12, 2014, for the charge of fourth degree assault (DV). Incident report # 14-308398, filed in the Spokane County Sheriffs Office, indicates law enforcement responded to Mr. Franklin's residence on September 12, 2014, after receiving an anonymous call that a female from his apartment had been heard screaming that she had been hit in the eye. Upon arrival, Mr. Franklin was contacted and admitted that his girlfriend was inside the residence. He refused to allow officers to see his girlfriend to verify her safety. Officers entered the residence to complete a welfare check. Mr. Franklin's girlfriend, Krystal Ware, was located in a back bedroom, crying and holding her face. Law enforcement observed that her right eye was swollen, and she had a cut on her eye. She advised that her and Mr. Franklin had been dating for about a year, and admitted that they had an argument, but denied that he had assaulted her. Based on the information from the anonymous complaint, and observed physical evidence, Mr. Franklin was arrested for domestic violence assault.
